Program Overview

Intrax Internships Abroad is more than just an internship program. This is your chance to work and live in another country and develop the global awareness, business acumen and communication skills needed to succeed in the global workplace.

In a competitive job market, students seek ways to differentiate themselves and gain international experience. Intrax Internships Abroad is a professional career development program that offers summer internships at world renowned companies in major cities around the world to help students become effective leaders in today's global economy.

For the summer of 2012, Intrax will select students from around Canada and the U.S. to join the program based on their background and language skills. Successful applicants will be placed in internships in London, Beijing, Santiago, Tokyo, Paris, Berlin, Barcelona and Madrid. Interns will typically speak the local language in the workplace in most of the host countries except for Beijing, Tokyo and Berlin, where they may work in English.

“Choose this program if you would like to expand your resume while living in a foreign country and working for a professional global corporation”

Testimonial

“I would definitely recommend this program. It is a great experience to work abroad and it is really nice to have everything set up for you. The best part of this program, however, is how Intrax matches you to the best internship for you by identifying your strengths and aspirations”

Mathild Williams, Yale University
Internet Marketing Intern, Paris

"Intrax is truly an incredible and unique organization. I feel quite confident that the success of my internship, as well as the seeking and the acquirement of, went smoothly because of the remarkable support and expertise that I received from Intrax."
