Princess Lodges

The largest cruise and tour operator in Alaska, Princess gives travelers the opportunity to combine a Gulf of Alaska cruise with the interior of Alaska experience. Princess Lodges, a division of Princess Cruises, was founded in 1972 and is headquartered in Seattle, Washington. Princess' Alaska lodge and hotel properties, unique in the industry for their wilderness riverside locations, offer the finest accommodations available in their areas. Princess also owns and operates several luxury railcars, known as Princess Rail.

About Alaska

Alaska is the largest state in the United States by area and it is a land of superlatives and adventure. Some of Alaska's popular annual events are the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race that starts in Anchorage and ends in Nome, World Ice Art Championships in Fairbanks, the Alaska Hummingbird Festival in Ketchikan, the Sitka Whale Fest, and the Stikine River Garnet Fest in Wrangell. The Stikine River features the largest springtime concentration of American Bald Eagles in the world. From fly-fishing to back country hiking to rafting, there are plenty of outdoor activities to sign up for while you are here during summer. Nature is your own back yard!
